

LGBTQ Issues in Schools Answer's Online Workshop

LGBTQ Issues in Schools is an interactive, self-paced online workshop for middle and high school health professionals to increase their knowledge of LGBTQ issues and how to make the school environment more inclusive for all professionals.

"Taking this training will save lives—the lives of LGBT youth, who are marginalized in so many ways in our nation's schools. Every educator and health professional that serves young people in the US should take this course." -Marlene Pray, Social Justice Sexuality Educator

Get the Most Out of Your Registration

Combine your registration with CD recordings of our How to Create Safe Spaces webinars, other online workshops and Sex, Etc. magazine. These products will provide you and your colleagues with an unmatched perspective of the issues LGBTQ students face and how to create safe and inclusive spaces for all students.

Have Our Expert Trainers Tailor a Workshop for You

In addition to our online workshops, Answer staff can provide on-site workshops for you and your colleagues. To get more information contact Todd Slawsky—Answer's director of marketing and administration by phone (732-445-7929) or e-mail (tslawsky@rci.rutgers.edu).
