2. 38.626487,-90.193467

You are looking for a unique statue. What part of what Greek god does this sculpture portray?

Optional: Extra 20 minute bonus walk (this will be the site of a free AAHPERD evening event) 38.633499,-90.201156

Housed in the 600,000 square-foot former International Shoe Company, this museum is an eclectic mixture of children's playground, funhouse, surrealistic pavilion, and architectural marvel made out of unique, found objects.

What yellow object is teetering off the top of the building?

What winged item do you see overhead?

3. 38.623786, -90.193765

There are statues outside of the team store. Who is portrayed by the statue posed making a diving, horizontal catch?

4. 38.626113, -90.190909

Geocache: 31 days of August Kiener Plaza (Market Street side, across from Hilton at the Ballpark)

Geocache Description: look for a small container near a place to relax. Muggles abound at this cache location. The fountain becomes an urban swimming hole in summer months and the park is a beautiful place to sit and people watch. Be stealthy!

Reminder: While in St. Louis do plan a visit to the Old Court House!

5. 38.624804,-90.188904

South 4th Street: This pre-World War II building now houses a hotel. It is St. Louis's last link to its long history as a fur trading post. What four words are inscribed along the very top of this building?

6. 38.623842, -90.187384

This site, built in 1834, was the first of its kind found west of the Mississippi River. What is this building, and what is the Latin phrase and date inscribed in gold above the front? Bonus points for knowing the Latin date.

7. 38.624862,-90.184928

This is your second to last stop. What are you standing under? Be sure to come back and visit the NPS museums found here.

8. 38.630274,-90.184602

Final spot: present your answers, collect your souvenir geocoin between 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm and celebrate your hard work!
