

Game-Play Assessment for Doubles Tennis

The student:	Never	Inconsistently	Often	Usually
1. Uses correct form on the forehand.	1	2	3	4
2. Uses correct form on the backhand.	1	2	3	4
3. Uses correct form on the lob.	1	2	3	4
4. Uses correct form on the volley.	1	2	3	4
5. Uses correct form on the first serve, making solid contact.	1	2	3	4
6. Second serve—when needed—has correct form and lands in the service court.	1	2	3	4
7. Uses specific shots at appropriate times.	1	2	3	4
8. Places shots rather than just returning the ball.	1	2	3	4
9. Moves into position quickly and prepares to play the ball.	1	2	3	4
10. Returns to base position after making a play.	1	2	3	4
11. Approaches the net for offensive play.	1	2	3	4
12. Covers the entire court with partner.	1	2	3	4
13. Communicates with partner.	1	2	3	4
14. Hits shots to open spots on opponents' court.	1	2	3	4
15. Play is balanced and somewhat even between partners.	1	2	3	4
16. Recognizes good performance by partner and opponents.	1	2	3	4
17. Calls shots correctly.	1	2	3	4
18. Knowledge of rules is evident.	1	2	3	4

Never = the skill is not attempted.

Inconsistently = the performer is equally likely either to make a mistake or to perform the skill correctly.

Often = the performer is consistent but does make an occasional error.

Usually = the performer is very consistent, rarely making an error.