

Thank you for attending my session and allowing me to share a sample of my skills-based lesson ideas with you. If you are interested in seeing more, please go to my new website www.FunHealthClass.com. The site is under construction, but will be fully stocked with all of my lessons, slideshows and other goodies before the beginning of next school year. Check it out and drop me a line with your thoughts about the site. Hopefully these ideas will help you have more fun in your health class every day while improve the health literacy of your students.

If you are looking for fun and creative lesson plans for your health classroom, you have come to the right place. FunHealthClass.com lessons were created using the National Health Education Standards. These lessons have been proven to work in my own classroom and they have been presented all over the country at SHAPE America and other conferences with rave reviews. Come in and shop and see how FunHealthClass.com lessons can add fun and health literacy to any classroom. These lessons are geared toward high school classes, but a lot of them are appropriate for middle-school classes as well. Enjoy.
